Contents

List of Figures vii
List of Tables ix

1. Introducing Modes of Production in Archaeology 1
   Robert M. Rosenswig and Jerimy J. Cunningham

2. Modes of Production in Southern California at the End of the Eighteenth Century 31
   Thomas C. Patterson

3. Applying Modes of Production Analysis to Non-State, or Anarchic, Societies: Shifting from Historical Epochs to Seasonal Microscale 52
   Bill Angelbeck

4. Early Agricultural Modes of Production in Mesoamerica: New Insights from Southern and Central Mexico 73
   Guillermo Acosta Ochoa

5. Production and Consumption: Theory, Methodology, and Lithic Analysis 97
   Myrian Álvarez and Ivan Briz Godino

6. Kin-Mode Contradictions, Crises, and Transformations in the Archaic Lower Mississippi Valley 121
   Bradley E. Ensor

2. Pre-State Agriculturalists

7. The Tributary Mode of Production and Justifying Ideologies: Evaluating the Wolf-Trigger Hypothesis 145
   Robert M. Rosenswig
8. The Ritual Mode of Production in the Casas Grandes Social Field 172
   Jerimy J. Cunningham

9. Bronze Economy and Mode of Production: The Role of Comparative Advantages in Temperate Europe during the Bronze Age 205
   Johan Ling, Per Cornell, and Kristian Kristiansen

3. ANCIENT STATES

10. Social Formations Analysis: Modes, Class, Gender, and the Multiple Contexts for Agency 231
    Bradley E. Ensor

    Gary M. Feinman and Linda M. Nicholas

4. MODERN STATES

12. Colonialism, Articulation, and Modes of Production at an Early Seventeenth-Century English Colony in the Western Caribbean 283
    Charles E. Orser Jr.

13. The Plantation Mode of Production 311
    James A. Delle

List of Contributors 335
Index 339