

Contents

List of Figures vii

Foreword ix

Acknowledgments xiii

Introduction: “Why Are You Here?” 1

Martin Tsang

1. Pelerinaj—Pilgrimage 21

Alex Batagi

2. Death and Rebirth in African Vodún and Haitian Vodou 33

Philippe Charlier

3. Crossed Paths: On Becoming Both Anthropologist and

Omo Orixá 44

Giovanna Capponi

4. The Scattering and Sharing of Wisdom around the World 55

Martin Tsang

5. Making Ocha in Havana 70

Ivor Miller

6. Finding Home in the River 87

Morgan M. Page

7. How I Came to the Tradition 102

Sue Kucklick-Arencia

8. Practicing Ifá in Tokyo 114

Yoshiaki Koshikawa

9. On Seeking Guidance 136

Eugenia Rainey

10. Finding My Place in the Lucumí Tradition as an African American Woman 150

Terri-Dawn González

11. Beading Spirit: Lessons Learned on Healing and Community in Lucumí 165

Belia Mayeno Saavedra

12. A Hermeneutics of Plurality on the Road of the Orisha 177

Michael Atwood Mason

Glossary 189

Notes 205

Suggested Further Reading 215

List of Contributors 217

Index 221