

Contents

List of Figures vii

List of Tables ix

1. The View from Two Fields: History and Archaeology of Historical Sex Work 1

Angela J. Smith, Anna M. Munns, and Kristen R. Fellows

Section I. Law and Spatial Order

2. Landscapes of Power and Desire: A Geographical Analysis of Washington, DC's Nineteenth-Century Brothel District 27
3. The Legal Language of Sex: Interpreting a Prostitution Hierarchy Using the Terminology of Criminal Charges 51
4. "Alleged Crusades" and "Self-Fooled Reformers": The Rise and Fall of White Slavery Hysteria in the 1910s 76
5. Sex Workers in the City: Brothels, Working Women, and the Urban Landscape of Nineteenth-Century Boston's North End Neighborhood 94

Jennifer A. Lupu

Anna M. Munns

Ashley Baggett and Carol A. Bentley

Alexander D. Keim

Section II. Illuminating Brothel Diversity: Children and Women of Color

6. Ghosts in the Archives: Using Archaeology to Discuss Brothel Childhoods 125

Jade Luiz

7. Using Racial Stereotypes as a Business Strategy: Ida Dorsey in Minneapolis 144

Penny A. Petersen

8. Melvina Massey: Fargo's Most Famous Madam 161

Angela J. Smith

Section III. On the Flip Side: Men and Masculinities

9. Homosocial Bonding in the Brothel: Feminine Spaces and Masculine Identities 189

Kristen R. Fellows

10. The Enterprising Career of Tom Savage in Los Angeles' Red-Light District, 1870–1909 215

AnneMarie Kooistra

11. "A WEAK MAN can now cure himself": Brothels as Alternative Venues for Treatment of "Private Diseases of Men"—and Other Afflictions 234

Mark S. Warner

12. Final Thoughts: Points of Intersection and Future Directions 247

Kristen R. Fellows and Angela J. Smith

References Cited 267

List of Contributors 287

Index 289