Contents

List of Figures vii
Preface xi
Introduction 1

PART I. BUILDINGS, TERRAIN, AND FORM

1. Mythical Terrain and the Building of Mexico’s UNAM 21
   René Davids

2. Universidad de Panama: Designing on the Outside Edge of the Periphery 34
   René Davids

3. Topography and Ideology: The Museum of Modern Art and the Helicoide de la Roca de Tarpeya 48
   Iván Gonzáles, José Rosas, and René Davids

4. São Paulo’s Topography and the Utopian Democracy 62
   Angelo Bucci and René Davids

5. Le Corbusier, Rio de Janeiro, Topography, and Housing: A Cross-Cultural Exchange 77
   René Davids

PART II. CITIES AND WATER

6. Mexico City as Reinvented Geography, Its Looming Environmental Crisis, and Recent Proposals for Regenerative Landscapes 95
   Edward R. Burian

7. Mountains, Wetlands, and Public Space in Bogotá 112
   René Davids with Julián Alejandro Osorio
8. Topography, Hydrology, and the Irrigated Landscapes of Mendoza, Argentina  126
   Jorge Ricardo Ponte, translated and adapted by René Davids

PART III. HILLS, INFRASTRUCTURE, AND SOCIAL ORDER

9. Santiago de Chile and the Changing Meaning of Its Hills  147
   Rodrigo Perez de Arce, translated and adapted by René Davids

10. Valparaíso: A Future in the Balance  160
    René Davids

11. Topography and Civic Order in Latin America  176
    René Davids

12. Demolishing Urban Hills: Establishing New Identities  190
    René Davids

Notes  203
Bibliography  225
List of Contributors  243
Index  247