

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations ix

List of Tables xiii

Preface xv

Acknowledgments xli

Introduction 1

1. Ethnogenesis and the Archaeology of Identity 9

PART 1. HISTORICAL AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL CONTEXTS

2. Spanish-Colonial San Francisco 41

3. From Casta to Californio, I: Who Lived at El Presidio de San Francisco? 70

4. From Casta to Californio, II: Social Identities in Late Spanish and Mexican-Era Alta California 100

5. From Artifacts to Ethnogenesis: Excavating El Presidio de San Francisco 117

PART 2. SPATIAL AND MATERIAL PRACTICES

6. Sites of Identification: Landscape 147

7. Structuring Structures: Architecture 173

8. Tradition and Taste: Ceramics	203
9. Consuming Practices: Foodways	233
10. Fashioning the Colonial Subject: Clothing	252
Conclusion: The Limits of Ethnogenesis	287
Appendix: Zooarchaeological and Archaeobotanical Analyses	307
Notes	325
References	343
Index	389

PROOF