Contents

List of Illustrations 000
List of Tables 000
Acknowledgments 000
Prologue: The Modern-Conservative Society Framework 000
1. Eric Williams vs. Juan Bosch: On Caribbean Historical Fundamentals 000
2. Eric Williams vs. Frank Tannenbaum: On Slave Laws, Slavery Systems, and Subsequent Race Relations 000
4. Haiti: The Origins of the Caribbean’s “Terrified Consciousness” about Race 000
5. Haitian Realities and Scholarly Myths: A Counterintuitive Analysis 000
6. Two Popular Theories of Caribbean Ideology and Race Relations: Frantz Fanon’s Theory of Liberating Violence and the Theory of Plantation Societies 000
7. C.L.R. James, George Padmore, and the Myth of the Revolutionary Caribbean 000
8. What Type of Socialism? Marxists and Social Democrats Vie for Leadership 000
9. The Failure of Socialism and “Militarism” in Grenada, 1979–83 000
10. Transcending Race: Self-Interest and Self-Determination in the Non-Independent Territories 000
11. Barbados: Tradition and Modernity in a Model Small State 000
12. Cuba, the Last Holdout: “Organic” Intellectuals Defend the Revolution by Abandoning Marxist-Leninism 000
Conclusion: Confronting the Perilous Threats of Organized Crime and Energy Dependence 000
Notes 000
Index 000