

Contents

Acknowledgments / vii

Introduction / 1

1. From the Southern to the U.S. Middle District of Florida, 1950s–1962 / 7
2. The U.S. Middle District of Florida, First Years, 1962–1968 / 27
3. The Middle District and Civil Rights, 1962–1968 / 49
4. Adjudicating Equality Continues: The Middle District and School Desegregation, 1968–1976 / 74
5. The Middle District and the War on Crime, 1968–1976 / 97
6. Growing Pains, Constitutional Questions, and Bankruptcy, 1976–1980 / 120
7. A New Era Begins: The Reagan Years, 1980–1988 / 142
8. Drugs, Drugs, and More Drugs, 1980–1988 / 160
9. Mad Dogs, Spies, and International Weapons Dealers / 181
10. Income Tax Evasion, the Death Penalty, the Environment, the AIDS Epidemic, Desegregation, and Voting and Employment Discrimination, 1980–1988 / 204
11. New Judges, New Challenges, 1988–1992 / 223
12. The Court Expands and Confronts Antigovernment Activity, 1992–2000 / 239
13. Bankruptcy in the Middle District, 1984–2000 / 256
14. First Amendment, Abortion Rights, Employment Discrimination, and School Desegregation Litigation Runs Its Course, 1992–2000 / 271

15. Drugs, Outlaws, Fraud, Pollution, Endangered Species, and a Baby Named Sabrina /	290
16. “It’s a Tidal Wave . . . and I’m Not Kidding about It!” /	311
17. Into the New Century, 2000–2004 /	326
18. Contesting Sentencing Guidelines, the Patriot Act, Terrorism, and Cases Involving International Questions /	341
19. Constitutional Questions of the Twenty-First-Century Court /	357
20. Income Tax Evasion, Medicare Fraud, Organized Crime, Environmental Disputes, and Bankruptcy /	372
21. Closing Arguments and Taking Stock: Fifty Years of Justice /	387
Appendix: Judicial Officers, Middle District of Florida
U.S. District Judges /	398
U.S. Magistrate Judges /	000
U.S. Bankruptcy Judges /	000
U.S. Attorneys /	000
U.S. Marshals /	000
Abbreviations /	413
Notes /	415
Bibliography /	477
Index /	487

proof