

CONTENTS

List of Figures ix

List of Maps xi

List of Tables xiii

Foreword xv

David R. Starbuck

Introduction 1

David G. Orr

1. “Make sure you Aim, for one Shot well pointed is worth a Dozen thrown away”: Evidence of a Musketry Range at Valley Forge National Historical Park, Pennsylvania 10
Wade P. Catts and Joseph F. Balicki
2. A More Tolerable Quarter: Archaeology at Washington’s Headquarters at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania 32
Joseph R. Blondino
3. The Material World of the Revolutionary War Soldier at Valley Forge Revisited: Comparative Excavations of a Brigade Encampment on the Grounds of the Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania 57
Jesse West-Rosenthal
4. “The Ground Necessary”: Excavations of a Brigade Encampment, Wayne’s Woods, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania 76
Julia Steele, Douglas Campana, and David G. Orr
5. Building the Log Hut City: An Analysis Using the Tools Issued at Morristown, New Jersey 125
Mathew Grubel

6. Forgotten Stones: The Rediscovery of Redding's Middle Encampment 164
Bethany A. Morrison and Cosimo A. Sgarlata
  7. The Unfulfilled American Revolution 191
Laurie Weinstein, Diane Hassan, and Samantha Mauro
  8. The Rochambeau Project: Historical and Archaeological Documentation of the French Army's Marches through Connecticut in 1781 and 1782 210
Mary Guillette Harper
  9. Incidents of Regional Variation in Winter Encampment Hut Construction: Huts and History at Redding, Connecticut 243
Daniel Cruson
  10. Conclusion 258
Cosimo A. Sgarlata
- List of Contributors 265
- Index 269