

Contents

List of Illustrations / ix
Acknowledgments / xi
Introduction: The Struggle for the Civil Right to Public Space in Miami / 1
1. Wade-In: Lawson Thomas and the Potent Combination of Direct Action and Negotiation / 17
2. Beyond Colored Town: The Changing Boundaries of Race Relations and African American Community Life in Miami, 1896–1945 / 41
3. Island Pleasures: Memories of African American Life at Virginia Key Beach / 83
4. The Shifting Sands of Civil Rights in Southeast Florida, 1945–1976 / 107
5. Public Land by the Sea: Developing Virginia Key, 1945–1976 / 148
6. The Erosion of a “World-Class” Urban Paradise: Tourism, the Environmental Movement, and Planning Related to Virginia Key Beach, 1982–1998 / 176
7. Forging Our Civil Right to Public Space, 1999–2015 / 202
Afterword: The Real Miami; Better than a Theme Park / 247
Notes / 259
Bibliography / 307
Index / 327