

Contents

List of Illustrations ix

List of Tables x

Foreword xi

Acknowledgments xv

Introduction 1

STEPHEN R. ORTIZ

Part I. Health Care

1. Army Sanctuary for Tubercular Veterans: Veterans' Health Care before the Veterans Bureau 11

CAROL R. BYERLY

2. The Invention, Stumbling, and Reinvention of the Modern U.S. Veterans Health Care System, 1918–1924 38

ROSEMARY A. STEVENS

Part II. Disability

3. Architecture of Injury: Disabled Veterans, Federal Policy, and the Built Environment in the Early Twentieth Century 65

JOHN M. KINDER

4. “An Emblem of Distinction”: The Politics of Disability Entitlement, 1940–1950 94

AUDRA JENNINGS

Part III. The Politics of Race and Labor

5. “Put Fighting Blood in Your Business”: The U.S. War Department and the Reemployment of World War I Soldiers 119

NANCY GENTILE FORD

6. The Long Journey Home: African American World War I Veterans and Veterans' Policies 146

JENNIFER D. KEENE

Part IV. Bonuses and G.I. Bills

7. Rethinking the Bonus March: Federal Bonus Policy, Veteran Organizations, and the Origins of a Protest Movement 173

STEPHEN R. ORTIZ

8. “Do Something for the Soldier Boys”: Congress, the G.I. Bill of Rights, and the Contours of Liberalism 199

NANCY BECK YOUNG

9. “A Veteran Does Not Have to Stay a Veteran Forever”: Congress and the Korean G.I. Bill 222

MELINDA PASH

10. A Price on Patriotism: The Politics and Unintended Consequences of the 1966 G.I. Bill 241

MARK BOULTON

Part V. Contemporary Veterans’ Politics

11. Conventional and Distinctive Policy Preferences of Early-Twenty-First-Century Veterans 263

JEREMY M. TEIGEN

12. Exploring the Effects of Combat Exposure on American Civic Life 281

CHRISTOPHER S. PARKER

List of Contributors 301

Index 303