

Contents

List of Figures 000

Acknowledgments 000

Introduction: Giving New Validity to Old Forms 000

1. “Mother to Son”: The Rise, Removal, and Return of Hughes 000
2. Black and Red: Accusations of Subversiveness 000
3. King and Poetry: Quotations, Revisions, and Unsolicited Poems 000
4. “Dream Deferred”: King’s Use of Hughes’s Most Popular Poem 000
5. “Poem for a Man”: King’s Unusual Request 000
6. “Youth”: Hughes’s Poem and King’s Chiasmus 000
7. “I Dream a World”: Rewriting Hughes’s Signature Poem 000
8. “I Have a Dream”: King Speaks in Rocky Mount 000
9. “The Psalm of Brotherhood”: King at Detroit’s March for Jobs 000
10. The March on Washington: Veiling Hughes’s Poetry 000

Conclusion: Extending the Dream 000

Notes 000

Bibliography 000

Index 000