

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: The Pathways to Inner Culture 1

1. Modernity, Modernism, and the Idea of Bildung 30

Modernity and the Rise of Bildung 32

The Production of the Subject 47

The Dialectics of Modernism 62

2. Pedagogy and Power in the Modernist Bildungsroman:
Hardy and Lawrence 73

Wished Out of the World: Hardy's Jude the Obscure 77

Realizing the Self: Lawrence's Sons and Lovers 100

3. Bildung and the "Bonds of Dominion": Wilde and Joyce 126

Aesthetics and "Self-Culture" in Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray 133

Colonial Bildung in Joyce's A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man 159

4. Bildung for Women: Joyce and Woolf 192

"Bildung supra Bildung": The Subject of Empire in Joyce's

"Nausicaa" 197

"What a lark! What a plunge!": Woolf's Critique of Bildung 212

Conclusion: The Janus Face of Modernism 249

Notes 255

Works Cited 295

Index 315