

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

In the Activists' Kitchen: An Introduction 1

Wesley C. Hogan and Paul Ortiz

Part I. Making the Common Good the Common Will: Social Movements and Political Organizing 15

1. Goodwyn and the Democratic Coalition of Texas 19

Max Krochmal

2. Without Dissent There Can Be No Democracy 34

Ernesto Cortés Jr.

3. The Larry Way 38

Jim Hightower

4. Calm Up: Dr. Goodwyn's Workshop 43

Donnel Baird

5. Larry Goodwyn, Obama Volunteer 52

Faulkner Fox

6. Movement Culture in Durham, North Carolina 66

Gunther Peck

7. A Democrat for the Ages 74

Benj DeMott

8. Nell's Kitchen, Larry's War Room 79

Peter H. Wood

9. Goodwyn Taught Me How to Live in 2019 Two Decades Ago 88

Adam Lioz

Part II. "The Point of the Entire Thing": Teaching inside Democratic Relationships 93

10. Family Politics: Son of a Little-d Democrat 97

Wade Goodwyn

11. You Already Know Everything 104

Wendy Jacobs

12. “Can I Buy You a Beer?”: Goodwyn’s America 113
Andrew Neather
13. Mentoring as Community-Building 119
Thelma Kithcart
14. Why Is Your Voice So Small? 125
Elise Goldwasser
15. From the Bottom of the Mud Hole 132
Charles C. Bolton
16. Goodwyn 101 138
Scott Ellsworth
17. A History-Changing Partnership 147
William H. Chafe
18. Ask Unsanctioned Questions: Interviewing Activists 159
Wesley C. Hogan

Part III. Challenge the Smug Orthodoxy: Democratic Money and Writing History 185

19. To Break the Hold of the Money Class: The Sub-Treasury Plan 189
Connie L. Lester
 20. Unfulfilled Thirst 199
William Greider
 21. How Lawrence Goodwyn Gave Me My Life 204
Tim Tyson
 22. Collective Self-Confidence: African American Women’s Organizing in Tobacco Leaf Houses 210
Lane Windham
 23. Imagination, Silence, and Movement Life 224
G. C. Waldrep
 24. Reclaiming Democracy in the Twenty-First Century:
A Challenge 232
Marsha J. Tyson Darling
- Epilogue 247
Wesley C. Hogan and Paul Ortiz

List of Contributors 257

Index 265