

Contents

Foreword 000

Louis A. Pérez Jr.

Acknowledgments 000

Introduction: Cuba in a Global Context 000

Catherine Krull

PART I. INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

1. Disaster, Disease, and Environmental Degradation: U.S.-Cuban
Cooperation as a Bridge to Reconciliation 000

William M. LeoGrande and Marguerite Rose Jiménez

2. A Model Servant: The Revolutionary Armed Forces and Cuban Foreign Policy 000

Hal Klepak

3. Cuba's Monumental Children: Operation Peter Pan and the Intimacies of Foreign Policy 000

Karen Dubinsky

4. The Role of the Courts in Shaping U.S. Policy toward Cuba 000

Stanley J. Murphy

5. Cuban-Chinese Relations after the End of the Cold War 000

Carlos Alzugaray Treto

6. "Complicated and Far-Reaching": The Historical Foundations of Canadian Policy toward Cuba 000

Asa McKercher

PART II. INTERNATIONALISM

7. The Cuba-Venezuela Alliance and Its Continental Impact 000

Max Azicri

8. Santeria Commerce and the Unofficial Networks of Interpersonal
Internationalism 000

Kevin M. Delgado

9. The Promise of Globalization: Sustainable Tourism Development and Environmental Policy in Cuba 000
Ricardo Pérez
10. The Heart of the Matter: The Impact of Cuban Medical Internationalism in the Global South 000
Robert Huish
11. Cuba's Revolutionary Agro-Ecological Movement: Learning from the Experience of Food Sovereignty 000
Efe Can Gürcan
12. Postcards from Abroad: The Cuban Special Period through Spanish Eyes 000
Ana Serra

PART III. TRANSNATIONALISM

13. Transnationalism and the Havana Cigar: Commodity Chains, Networks, and Knowledge Circulation 000
Jean Stubbs
14. Through the Eyes of Foreign Filmmakers: Contradictions and Paradigms of Cuban Cinema after the Revolution 000
María Caridad Cumaná
15. Cubans in Spain: Transnational Connections and Memories 000
Mette Louise Berg
16. Oral History and Constructions of Racial Memory 000
Yvette Louis
17. Cubans without Borders: From the Buildup to the Breakdown of a Socially Constructed Wall across the Florida Straits 000
Susan Eckstein
18. Ernesto Che Guevara, Dispositions, and Education for Transnational Social Justice 000
John D. Holst

List of Contributors 000

Index 000