

Contents

Preface: “Haïti existe!” xi

Acknowledgments xxix

Introduction. Kalfou Danjere: State Apparatus, War Machine, and Terror in a Transnational Context 1

Part 1. Policed Waters, Transatlantic Military Zones

1. Rethinking the Black Atlantic: Trans-American Regimes of Violence, Epistemological Occlusions 45
2. Lòt Bò Dlo: Transatlantic Journeys, Haitian Refugees, and the Perils of the Black Atlantic 67
3. Liminal Citizens: Drifting between Ginen and Guantánamo 91

Part 2. Occupied Lands, Aborted States, Arrested Developments

4. Lapè Nan Vant: Hunger, Poverty, and Food Economies 117
5. Aborted States of Development?: Haiti’s Historical Revenants, Post-Duvalier’s Daughters 146

Part 3. State Violence in a Transnational Context

6. Le Cri des Oiseaux Fous: Duvalierism, Development, State Violence, and Duvalierism without Duvalier 177
7. Amour Douleur Folie: State Violence and Post-Duvalierist Revenants 201
8. “He Came to Kill the Preacher”: Saints, Martyrs, Torturers, and Post-Duvalierist Returns 219

Notes 253

Bibliography 275

Index 303