

Contents

List of Figures vii

List of Tables xi

Introduction 1

Heather A. Lapham

1. Ethnohistorical and Ethnographic Sources on Bear-Human Relationships in Native Eastern North America 16

Gregory A. Waselkov

2. “Dear, Honored Guest”: Bear Ceremonialism in Minnesota 48

David Mather

3. The Great White Bear in Cosmology, Myth, Imagery, and Ritual 71

Thomas E. Berres

4. The Multifaceted Bear: Spiritual and Economic Roles of Bears in Meskwaki Society 91

Ralph Koziarski

5. Use of Black Bears in the Western Great Lakes Region and the Riddle of the Perforated Bear Mandibles 108

Terrance J. Martin

6. Black Bears and the Iroquoians: Food, Stories, and Symbols 138

Christian Gates St-Pierre, Claire St-Germain, and Louis-Vincent Laperrière-Désorcy

7. In Feast and Famine: New Perspectives on Black Bears in the Southern Appalachians and Piedmont, AD 1000–1800 160
Heather A. Lapham
 8. Better than Butter: Yona Go'i, Bear Grease in Cherokee Culture 193
Heidi M. Altman, Tanya M. Peres, and J. Matthew Compton
 9. Bears, Bear Grounds, and Bovines in the Lower Southeast 217
Barnet Pavao-Zuckerman
 10. Reexamining the Evidence for Bear Ceremonialism in the Lower Mississippi Valley 235
Ashley Peles and Megan C. Kassabaum
 11. Menageries and Bearskin Caps: Experiencing North American Bears in Postmedieval Britain 256
Hannah J. O'Regan
 12. Bear-Human Relationships in Native Eastern North America: An Overview of Archaeological and Ethnohistorical Evidence 271
Gregory A. Waselkov and J. Lynn Funkhouser
- References Cited 311
- List of Contributors 383
- Index 387