

Contents

List of Figures 000

Acknowledgments 000

List of Abbreviations 000

Introduction: Gendering the History of Dictatorship and Transnational Politics 000

1. Advocating Suffrage and Sovereignty: Pan-American Feminism and the Rise of the Trujillato, 1922–1942 000
2. Defending the Home against the Chaos of Communism: Women,
Regime Politics, and the Cold War, 1942–1961 000
3. Intimate Violations: Gender, Family, and the Ajusticiamiento of Trujillo, 1944–1961 000
4. Neither Russia nor the United States: Women and the Search for Legitimate Democracy, 1961–1965 000
5. First to Liberate Women's Lib: Negotiating the Politics of Mediation during Balaguer's Doce Años, 1966–1978 000
6. Sangre sin Revolución: The Gendered Politics of Opposition through the Doce Años 000

Epilogue: International Women's Year and Dominican Transnational
Feminism under Authoritarianism 000

Notes 000

Bibliography 000

Index 000